

Kevin Woolley - Managing Partner

Kevin took up a leading role for the establishment of a new PMC consulting provider in the UAE in early 2015. He has assisted in the establishment of the PMKConsult brand in the marketplace.

Recently Kevin was the Regional Real Estate leader for a major multi-national corporation. In this role Kevin took the lead on all aspects of the portfolio management, asset management and delivery of significant construction projects around Europe, Middle East, Africa and India.

Also responsible for the global project management function, Kevin delivered consistency to all project delivery teams globally through strong project governance, processes and management.

Kevin has a proven track record of leading international estate portfolio transformation programmes and large construction projects, delivering results that improve business performance in complex business and environmental environments.
